

WHAT REMAINS?

1. If you took away food as a source of entertainment, escape, joy, pleasure, activity, or pastime, how would your life look differently?
2. How much time would it free up and what would you do with that time?
3. How would you think this would affect your daily emotional state? Why?
4. If you were no longer hungry or desired food, how might that change your identity?

